PERSONAL.

Mrs. Prof. Bennett is visiting relatives in Greenville.

Dr. T. J. Slaton, of Greenville, was in town yesterday.

T. L. Griffin, Esq., returned from Louisville last week.

Mrs. S. W. Anderson returned from Cincinnati last Sunday.

C. M. Pendleton, Esq., left yesterday morning for Owensboro.

Judge W. F. Gregory left last week for Louisville and has returned.

Mr. W. C. Morton, of Owensboro, was in town a day or two this week.

Mr. R. C. Hardwick returned from a business trip to Louisville last week.

Mr. E. P. Thomas and son, Jimmie, have been visiting relatives in Owensboro.

J. F. Lewis, Esq., of Owensboro, visited friends and relatives here last week.

Kernie Boardman, of Whitesville, has accepted a position as clerk at W. J. Norris' Hotel.

Miss Lizzie Gregory, accompanied by Miss Jessie Shull, of Croywell, visited our office Friday morning.

Mrs. Capt. Frank Hackett, of Livermore, visited her son, Everett, who is a pupil of Hartford College, last week.

J. H. Anderson, Esq., came down from Caneyville last week to assist in the Bazaar during his father's absence.

Mr. Z. A. Rosenberg left last week for the eastern cities to purchase goods for his clothing and furnishing store. He returned a few days ago with a mammoth spring stock.

Messrs. R. V. Thomas, editor of the Mullenger Echo, J. D. Allison, W. A. Wicklie and Judge S. P. Love were in town a day or two last week. We had the pleasure of a call from them while here.

Mr. S. W. Anderson left last week for the East to purchase spring goods for this place and his numerous houses in the Green River country. He will have all the novelties of the season when his goods arrive.

Mr. Tracy Woodson, one of the polite and energetic publishers of the Owensboro Messenger and Examiner, was in town a day or two last week. We had the pleasure of a call from him while here.

We understand that Dr. W. A. Huff, of Pelville, contemplates locating in Missouri. He has recently returned from a tour of inspection of that country. We are sorry to lose him from this part of the moral vineyard.

Mr. C. W. Metcalfe, the urbane representative of Hawkins, Morris & Co., the leading cigar and tobacco house of Cincinnati, spent Monday and Tuesday of last week with our people. Mr. Metcalfe has a good trade here and it deserves to increase greatly.

Mr. Will H. Hervey, with John P. Morton & Co., booksellers and publishers, Louisville, Ky., was in town last week in the interest of the American Standard Series of school books. Mr. Hervey is a genial gentleman, and the house he represents has a most enviable reputation.

—Call on Tracy for all kinds of Farming Implements.

—Look out for the bargains at Anderson's Bazaar next week.

—Every Plow sold by Tracy warranted to do good work; all steel.

—Oh, Yes! Come and examine those riding and walking cultivators, for sale by Dan. F. Tracy; guaranteed to do the work of three other horse teams.

—Teachers whose schools were reported out by the 15th of February can now draw their money by calling on J. Edwin Rowe, School Commissioner.

—Health, hope and happiness are restored by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a positive cure for all those diseases from which women suffer so much. Send for Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 234 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlets.

—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. Monroe Taylor. This house has been established nearly 40 years, and their goods are celebrated for purity and strength. We would recommend a trial of their Gold Medal brands to all who desire superior cookery.

—Why will you suffer from Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, distress after eating and similar complaints, when 25 cents will buy Ball's Digestive Salt from your druggist or grocer? It is used at the table instead of ordinary table salt. See advertisement.

—It's a daisy! What's a daisy? Why that Champion Sulky Plow sold by Dan F. Tracy. Call and see it turn weeds under as high as a man's head clear out of sight; also those Avery and Excelsior Plows cannot be beat for excellence of work and ease of doing it. If —The Standford Hotel, Louisville, Ky., is now one of the best hotels in the place. It has been enlarged about fifty per cent, during the past year, has a new and spacious dining-hall, a new reading-room, a very neat and comfortable reception room, an excellent elevator, and is perfect in every respect. The management of the hotel is unsurpassed, the fare good as appetite could wish for, and in every respect the hotel is perfect. It is near the L. & N. depot, where all southern and western Kentucky visitors reach and leave the city, and is very convenient, as it saves half or omnibus fares. In short, the Standford offers more and better accommodations for less money than any other hotel in Louisville. Do not take our word for it, but try it and be convinced.

—New Hats at V. P. Addington's. —Tracy keeps the best Plows in the market; all steel, and can be sharpened. —Why don't you buy your prints at V. P. Addington's? The best for 7 cents. —Big drive in Coffee. Arabica or Levering's coffee 6 lbs. for 95 cents, at Thomas Bros.

White Lead and Oil for sale by Dan F. Tracy for cash, cheap.

—Married, March 24th, 1882, by Rev. G. J. Bean, Booker Richardson, Esq., and Mrs. Margaret A. Blue. The parties live near town.

—The harsh aspect of the autumnal gray, which betokens the shady side of life, is easily modified by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. —Mr. Chapman Crow contributed to our cabinet of curiosities last week a nice specimen of quartz. We thank Mr. Crow, and will thank any of our friends for specimens of peculiar stones, petrifications, Indian relics, etc.

—The only ladies' and the only preparation of iron that gives complete satisfaction is Brown's Iron Bitters. It contains no alcohol. It does not blacken the teeth. It gives real strength. —J. A. Vandiver, wholesale merchant, Louisville, tried T. E. Ritchey's pills in his family and so well did they act that he has taken a large lot for the jobbing trade. Thomas & Kimbley are agents also.

—Police Court commenced Monday, and is still in session. Marshal Warden having worked up so extensive a docket as to require three or four days to finish up. Hartford Police Court is becoming one of the leading institutions of town, and bids fair to rival the Circuit Court in a short time.

—We understand that S. W. Anderson, of Anderson's Bazaar, has made a bid on a lot of goods in Cincinnati, where he now is, which, if accepted, will place in Hartford the most wonderful bargains ever offered to the people of Ohio county.

—Now is the time for merchants with cash in their pockets to make fortunes in a day. It is said there was never anything like it since the panic of '73.

—Mrs. Adeline Wallace, widow of Franklin Wallace, died last Monday night, after an illness of about five weeks. Typhoid fever was the disease. She was formerly Mrs. Preston Ambrose. Her maiden name was Lowe, a sister to Thomas Lowe. She was the mother-in-law of Sheriff D. L. Smith, and a lady highly esteemed by all who knew her. The funeral will be held at her late residence, to-day, by Rev. Robt. Bennett, after which her remains will be interred in the family graveyard on the farm.

—The occasion of the season was the opening of Mr. R. P. Rowe's emporium last Wednesday. The HERALD, as a forerunner, had advised all the people round about this part of the moral vineyard of the proposed grand opening, and expectation was on tip-toe. Bright and early the folding doors of the commodious building were thrown open and the crowd rushed in and soon filled the spacious apartments. The scene was more attractive and dazzling than any of us had imagined. The large stock of goods were very systematically arranged. The attendance increased and the interest kept up to fever heat throughout the day. The sales were near $500 the first day, and every one left well pleased with the energy, pluck and business shrewdness of Mr. Rowe, and felt that he had shown himself a public benefactor by bringing on such varied stocks of goods needed by the people. They appreciated the prices, too, for Mr. Rowe by buying so largely has been enabled to reduce retail rates considerably. The sales at this new establishment from the opening up to now were probably never equalled by any store or firm in Ohio county. We voice the sentiment of a large portion of the people of Ohio county in saying we wish Mr. Rowe the great success he so richly deserves.

—Born, to the wife of W. J. Norris, Tuesday, March 21st, 1882, a son. —The Best Clothing in the market can be found at V. P. Addington's. —The Martins have returned from their winter southern homes and are making music hereabouts. —New Dry Goods at V. P. Addington's next week. Save your orders for him.

—One car load of Lime and Salt just received at Oscar Stevens & Co., Beaver Dam, at bottom prices.

—There are fifteen paupers in the county house of Ohio county, cared for at public expense. Mr. J. K. Tanner, is the superintendent.

—Some persons are partial to red, some to green, and others other colors, but Booker fancied Blue more than all the other colors combined, so he got him a full supply last Sunday.

—James Robertson, of South Carrollton, died last Wednesday night, of Pneumonia. He was a son of the late Charles Robertson. He leaves a wife, and six children.

—Messrs. Hauser & Kingsley, Druggists, Manchester, say: "We handle S. Jacobs Oil with abundant success, and it has given excellent satisfaction to our customers."

—Pink-Eye struck W. T. King's lively stable, last Monday, and several of his horses have it, and the rest of them are expected to take it. He closed his stable yesterday morning.

—Mr. S. H. Joseph, Agent Emerson's Minstrel remarks: "I can with truth speak from experience; and in saying St. Jacobs Oil acts in a marvelous manner I but partly express my good opinion of it."

—The Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, the best company in the world, now has an agency in Hartford, in the person of John P. Barrett, call on him, and have your life insured on the most approved plan.

—Ladies do not fail to go to Rowe's Emporium and look at that magnificent gold opera chain. It is worth $50, and will be given away to some one of the subscribers of the Hartford Herald in our gift distribution. Subscribe for the paper, either for yourself, or some friend, and take a chance.

—The Best Binding, Braids and Silk Twist Threads of all kinds at V. P. Addington's.

—G. J. Bean & Son have re-opened their blacksmith shop and have employed Henry Miller, of Nelson county, who is a first-class workman. Wagons, Plows and Horse-shoeing a specialty. Will say to our old friends and former customers to call at our old stand and get their work done.

G. J. BEAN & SON.

—Our old friend, H. A. James, of Morgantown, has at last succumbed to the gentle influence of love, and is now a happy being. He was married on the 15th, inst., to Miss Nellie E. Smith, at the church in Morgantown. Kind old "fel" we congratulate you, and wish you and yours a happy voyage adown the stream of time.

—Uncle John Midkiff, our nominee for jailer, is the right kind of a Democrat. His sympathies during the war were on the side of the South, but he has laid all that away, and was one of the warmest supporters Gen. Wolford had in the county convention last night. Hurray for Uncle John. Boys! elect him by 500 majority.

—Why buy your boots and shoes elsewhere, when you can get the same article from 25 cents to $1.00 per pair, cheaper by buying of L. F. Woerner. He keeps a full assortment of men's, women's and children's shoes and boots, all good custom made work, and also makes to order in best of style on short notice.

—Sheriff Smith, arrested a few days ago, on a raft here, Marshal Woodley and B. T. Wooley, on Bench warrants from Edmonson Circuit Court. They gave bond with James Sullenger security, who came in yesterday and gave them up to the Sheriff, who will take them to Brownsville tomorrow. There are two indictments against Marshal Woodley, one for selling liquor without license, and one for keeping a Tippling House, and one indictment against B. T. Wooley, for carrying concealed a deadly weapon.

—Rev. Charles W. Stone, a new-fledged evangelist, reached here last Saturday, and began a series of meetings Sunday night, and is still holding forth. A representative of the Herald interviewed him yesterday. He declined to state what church he was a member of, fearing it might injure his influence as an evangelist. He says he is not working for or in the interest of any special church, but for Christ and his cause. He is, in stage parlance, just making his debut. His mother lives in Breckenridge county, and we understand that he is a native of that county, and formerly lived there, but is now traveling. He has had fair audiences here so far. His stay here will be lengthened, according to the success he meets with. He is a young looking man. He proposes to visit Owensboro, after he leaves here.

—Rowe's Emporium is still the center of attraction in Hartford. The large furniture room was opened to the public this week, and is well supplied with a variety of furniture such as the people need. Mr. Thomas L. Baird has been employed to take charge of this department. In the dry goods department R. J. Morris and Sam B. Bishop, the old stand-bys, are assisted by W. P. Roll and Alva Karns, which makes a first-rate team of live business men. Mrs. Rowe presides with ease and grace in the postoffice department, and Perry—well, Perry Rowe is around, here, there and everywhere, his eagle eye looking after each and every interest. The combination is a strong one, and is sure to win. Go there when you will and you will be waited upon promptly, pleasantly and politely, and get your wants supplied with the best of goods for the very least money. Try them once.

—A nice lot of New Cassimeres just received at V. P. Addington's. —Barrett & Bro. have recently taken the agency of the Travelers Accident Insurance Company. Life, Fire and Accident Insurance are all necessary, and this firm represent all these. —Married—March 23rd, near Newville, by the Rev. Archie Davis, Mr. Nat Russell, and Miss Mollie Jarnagan. The groom is about 72, while the bride, is about 22.

—Among the little items of personal comfort and economy are Ayer's Pills. They are the ready remedy which defeat many disorders, if taken in season, and should be kept in every family.

—When in the course of human events, you wish to purchase any goods, wares or merchandise go to R. P. Rowe's Emporium, and you will get the best goods, and more for the same money than you have ever done before in this county.

—The directors of the Fair Company had a meeting last Saturday and determined to hold a five day's fair, commencing October 3rd. They also resolved to make the Fair the best and most entertaining ever yet held in Ohio county. They are business men and mean what they say; so look out for a boomier this year.

Dr. H. Baldwin, dentist, of Elizabethtown, will be in Hartford on the 15th of April to remain one week. He will come prepared to execute all kinds of dental work in the very best style, and if your molars are out of repair we advise you to call on him. His charges are very reasonable, and we can assure our readers that he does none but first-class work.

Sometimes in the still night When slumber's chain hath bound us, We're aroused by the cry of fire And find it blazing all around us.

In such an emergency the best thing to have is an insurance policy on your perishable property in some good Fire Insurance Company. Barrett & Bro., Hartford, Ky., represent as good, fair, liberal, punctual companies as the world affords—they have had about ten years experience in the business, and know just how to insure you, and can give as low rates as any agency anywhere.

The Great Break in Dry Goods.

From reports we have from the east the great break in dry-goods and clothing must be immense. We notice that S. W. Anderson, of Anderson's Bazaar, bought last week a lot of prints in Cincinnati, at three-fourths quarter cents a yard, a lot of cottonades, valued at fifteen cents a yard, for ten cents, and a lot of clothing for one hundred and twenty-five dollars which was invoiced a short time ago at five hundred dollars.

If the Bazaar will sell these goods in proportion to their cost our people may expect to buy goods for less than one-half of what they have ever sold at before in Hartford, and we believe it is the rule of the house to always give their customers the benefits of all job purchases. We also note the purchase of a closing-out sale of a big lot of dress goods, purchased by Mr. Anderson at twelve and a half cents a yard, and another lot at seven cents a yard. All this sounds incredible, but we know our information to be reliable, and would advise our readers to wait for these bargains before making their spring purchases, and visit the Bazaar next week. Large failures may be expected among the wholesale merchants, as the break in prices in the last few days will cause the loss of thousands, many lines of goods being sold at a loss of fifty per cent.

Due Warning.

We cannot and will not send the HERALD on a credit any more to any one and you need not ask us to unless you desire to be refused. All subscriptions now on our books, not paid for in advance by May 1st, 1882, will be taken off, and the amount due, listed with an officer for collection.

Notice.

All persons indebted to the estate of L. G. Gary, deceased, must come forward and settle with me at once and save themselves costs. Notes executed to A. Jones, as administrator of said estate, must be paid to me.

A Remarkable Ox.

There comes regularly into Auburn from the neighborhood of Berry's Lick, in Butler county, a light wagon, loaded with country produce for Children & Smith, drawn by a large brindled ox. The animal is owned by a blacksmith named Gwosdek, and his master loves him better than any object in the world except, perhaps, his wife. The ox draws that wagon with more ease than any draught horse in the country, and the best roadsters are utterly unable to keep pace with him. He does all kinds of farm work, never bites young corn when plowing and will not pluck even a leaf of fodder when used in gathering corn. He is a native of Georgia, and when three years old pulled the family and household goods of his master from that State to his present home in Butler.—Herald-Enterprise.

Making Ready for the Tenth Season of 1882.

McCONNELSVILLE, O., March 29, '82.

Editor Herald:

Miles Orton's Show, after a vacation of nearly four months, is ready again for the road, and will open the season at McConneville, O., Thursday, April 20th, with the largest establishment Orton ever managed during over thirty years of experience. The show property has been entirely re-fitted and repaired, and an immense amount of new work has been added. The menagerie has been largely increased by the addition of late importations, including a pure snow white camel, a steinhorn, a giant gorilla, the titanic titmouse, the first one ever imported, a midget behemoth, and the renowned war elephant, "Pekin," from the Chinese Zoo, all of which, with a large number of familiar beasts, arrived over from Hamburg last Friday. This change will give the show, with perhaps two possible exceptions, the best traveling menagerie today in the country. The ring attractions will be Miles Orton's riding, Little Allie and Bernard, Leon, the sensational jockey, the dog "Heeter," six new trick stallions, the equestrian cynophobes, and the retention of all the old favorites and a score of new people. The entire State, and particularly this portion of it, is jubilant over the prospect of being visited by a fine show this season. The Italian midget, the handsome lady mite living, will be a feature of the museum. The show takes the Ohio river and its tributaries by boat at the start and afterwards on wagons and will close the season by rail. Kentucky is one of the objective points, and you may look for the "Mastodon" before the August rays shall have shrouded their sweltering heat upon your beautiful heads. The drove of elk have just shed their horns, the last one dropping off yesterday.

A brief chat with Mr. Orton develops the fact that he has not forgotten Hartford and its citizens for the kind treatment he received at their hands, and emphatically wishes to be remembered to them all.

Butler County.

MORGANTOWN, KY., March 1882.

Editor Herald:

As nothing has been written from this part of the moral vineyard for some time I venture to send you a few lines.

On Wednesday, the 15th inst., Hon. H. A. James and Miss Bettie Smith and J. E. Harrell and Miss Ella Finley were married at the church in Morgantown at 7 o'clock, p. m. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. A. Reed, and was largely attended by the friends of the parties. We wish them much success and many joys.

John Bone, an old man and respected citizen of Butler county, died at his residence in this county, on the 15th inst., of rheumatism.

The Republicans of Butler county met in mass convention in Morgantown, Ky., on Monday the 13th inst., and nominated the following ticket for county offices: J. W. Ward, County Judge; Rev. B. Weaver, County Clerk; S. H. Tanner, Sheriff; John W. Martin, Assessor; James T. Rives, Jailor; Ward and Tanner were nominated without opposition. Weaver's nomination was contested by T. D. Turner, and the vote was 131 for Weaver and 93 for Turner, as we learn it. Martin's nomination was contested by Ed Turner, Frank Adkins, W. T. Hill and Henry Tyree, but Martin was selected by the first ballot, by a majority so apparent that it was not counted. Rives was nominated over W. A. Harrell on first ballot by a plain majority; the votes not being counted on this ballot. The voting took place in the court-house yard, each candidate going to a designated place and calling his followers around him. The convention also passed a resolution advising that the Republicans nominate no candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. No candidates were nominated by the convention for County Attorney, Coroner or Surveyor.

The following persons, who are Democrats, are spoken of as candidates at the ensuing August election in this county: H. A. James, County Judge; Phoebe McKenney, County Clerk; R. B. Kuykendall, Sheriff; ————, Assessor; and J. H. Stone, Jailor. We may also number among the candidates the following gentlemen who are Republicans: B. L. D. Gully, County Judge; W. S. Taylor, County Clerk; W. H. Fuller, Assessor; Allen Brame, Jailor.

The unprecedented amount of high water this year has almost totally destroyed us of all facilities, but has not deflected us in enabling all log men to get their saw-logs to market, and, notwithstanding the fact that there has been much talk that our timber had given out, was used up, &c., &c., the amount and number of logs this year sent to market from this county is much larger than any preceding year, and many parties are preparing to get out logs another year.

Dr. John C. Marchand's school at this place is a decided success, having a large attendance. The Doctor is a live teacher, and needs only to be tried to be trusted.

The Republicans and Greenbackers of Butler county are almost to a man for Jacobs, if no candidate of their own party runs. As between Jacobs and Henry, single shot, so this county down for Jacobs by from 1,000 to 1,400 majority. The figures sound large, I know, but Butler is a mighty county when "her dander's rized."

VERMILION.

"Two Brothers of the Same Name."

MOBILE, ALA., March 17, 1882.

Editor Herald:

Replying to your call on me, as published in your paper of the 8th inst., to say whether or not I have a brother at McConneville, Ill., with initials the same as my own, I would state that I have. All he says in his card to you, under date of February 25th, is correct, with the exception of his denial of knowing anything about a "co-operative agency," etc. On the 26th of January he wrote me: "I have read and re-read your article on 'Upland Rice' from the Carlin's Journal. Why is not that worth trying in our latitude? Can you not obtain for me a pound or two of the seed? If you can please do so, and I will scatter it all over the lower Ohio and Central Mississippi Valley, and, perhaps turn an honest penny by making it an advertising medium." Without having the remotest idea of what he was driving at I replied that my supply of seed rice was exhausted, which was the fact—I had sent out between ten and fifteen bushels, in ounce packages, to the readers of the Carlin's Journal. I could not help feeling astonished at his notion of being able to scatter seed rice, as he proposed, from a stock of only "a pound or two." On the 6th of February he wrote me again, urging me to procure seed rice for him, the celebrated Yungon variety, if possible; if not, then "the next best variety." He stated that he had already sent out slips for publication, proposing to distribute seed rice free, to three hundred different newspapers in Virginia, West Virginia, Southern Ohio, Kentucky, Southern Missouri, Southern Illinois, Southern Indiana, Kansas and Arkansas, and he was expecting that the orders would soon be "pouring in" upon him. I now copy from his letter of February 6th: "Of course I have at least a half-bushel to grind in the matter—we have established a 'co-operative agency,' and are doing something of a business through the mails. We are now having quite a run on a stationery package, and the circulars of the 'co-operative agency' will accompany the seeds. If it is possible to obtain the Yungon, please do so; if not, obtain for me any variety you can. If I could get so much as a quart I think I could make it answer."

This scrap of information, together with a possession of one of the slips referred to, raised the mischief, as one would naturally suppose, and led to what he terms "an unfortunate misunderstanding between brothers."

Greatly regretting the necessity of making such a publication, I am,

Truly Yours,

J. P. STELLER.

Shan't I Take a Hint?

No, don't take it and run the risk of metabolic poisons, but when billions and counted get a package of the celebrated

Kidney-Wort, and it will speedily cure you. It is nature's great remedy for constipation, and for all kidney and liver diseases. It acts promptly on these great organs, and so restores health, strength and vigor. It is put up in liquid and dry form, acting with equal efficiency. Price $1. See advertisement.

THE NORTHWESTERN MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

The day has gone by when it was required to approach men of intelligence with arguments in favor of the insurance, the wisdom as well as the duty of securing a policy in some reliable institutions of the kind being conceded by every sensible person, and therefore it only remains to show wherein one particular company holds a stronger position than its competitors and can extend superior inducements to those who contemplate insurance.

In comparing the annual statements of the leading companies for the year

1880, we find none that makes a more satisfactory showing than the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Incorporated in 1857, it has advanced with rapid strides and now occupies a prominent position among the competent, most prosperous and progressive life companies in the United States.

From the Annual Statement of January 1, 1881, it appears that the Company's assets aggregate $18,346,212.38;

its total liabilities being $15,344,915.37, leaving a surplus of $3,001,297.01 over the reserve of four percent. During the year there were issued 3,351 policies, covering insurance to the amount of $8,618,762. On the 1st of January, 1881,

the entire number of policies in force was 34,172; the total amount at risk,

$1,970,051, an increase during 1880 of 1,106 policies and $1,918,193 insurance.

The income for 1880 was $3,141,957.48,

of which $1,576,325.16 was in premiums, and $1,565,632.32 for interest. The total disbursements to policy holders were $2,159,340.16, including $688,321.82

in payment of death claims, in twenty-five different States and Territories.

It is a remarkable fact that from the organization of the Company its interest present time, its interest receipts have more than paid the entire death losses,

the excess from this source having ad-deded $2,018,816 to the assets. Although large of interest were greatly reduced last year, the company realized

more than enough in interest receipts to cover all death losses and expenses of management, being the seventh consecutive year in which this result has been attained. The total excess for the seven years was over $800,

000—an exhibit without parallel in the annals of life insurance. The accomplishment of such brilliant success while paying the largest dividends of any life company in the United States, and maintaining the legal reserve of four per cent., is certainly indicative of unusual ability in the Company's management, and fully justifies the entire confidence bestowed upon it by the public.

A comparison of the surplus with liabilities of ten of the largest life insurance companies, rating the surplus according to the New York standard of 4 per cent., shows that of the Northwestern Mutual is 29.1 per cent.,

while the others, commencing at 24.7, gradually decrease to only 9.8. There could be no better evidence of the thoroughly sound condition of a company's pecuniary affairs.

There is a great increase in the new business of this Company, judging from what it has done in the month of April 1882.
